

HISTORY OF THE CLUB

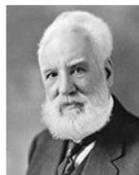

Founded in 1849, The Royal High School Club exists to keep alive the spirit of one of the oldest secondary schools in Britain.

The Royal High School dates from 1128 (the World's 18th oldest school) and is a celebrated Edinburgh institution. Famous for the magnificent building on Calton Hill (designed by architect and former pupil Thomas Hamilton), the school is renowned for its traditions and consistently high academic achievement.

The Royal High School Club aims to "form a bond of union among the Former Pupils". All former pupils share eight centuries of history. However as school-leavers pass through the Memorial Door and into a new life, it's not unusual to lose touch with friends and even memories from school. The Club aims to provide a central gathering point for former pupils and teachers of all ages throughout the world.

Many former pupils have distinguished themselves since leaving the school. The list encompasses all walks of life, is long and includes:

Sir Walter Scott, Ronnie Corbett, Robin Cook MP, Ivan Tukalo, Alexander Graham Bell, Norman MacCaig, Dr Robert Knox, Sarah Boyack MSP, James Hutton, Frankie Poullain, Pringle Fisher

WHAT THE CLUB DOES

The Club's aims and objectives are maintained by the Club President who is supported by a 12-strong committee all working on a voluntary basis. The Club provides a great deal of support in its activities throughout the year:

Prizes and Bursaries

The Club funds a number of prizes and bursaries including Dux of School and the Sir Percy Malcolm Stewart Scholarships. Club subscriptions also support a variety of projects around the school including the presentation room displaying the proud history of the School and Club to visitors.

Contact with the School

The strength of the Club is of direct benefit to the school and current pupils. The link between the Club and the school has always been important, whether it is through close contact with the Rector and the School Council, the leavers' events, or attending Personal and Social Education (PSE) classes for sixth years about to leave.

Website and Archive

The Club has maintained a website since 2002 for events and former pupil news and for storing parts of the vast archive of photographs, memories and stories recently unearthed. It is updated regularly and records over 1000 hits per month. The web address is www.royalhigh.co.uk.

Social Events

By maintaining a database of around 2,500 former pupils, the Club keeps members informed of the social events arranged by the Committee: the Annual Dinner in March, the Leavers' Gathering in August and the informal November Drinks.

WHY JOIN?

All members receive a copy of A History of the Royal High School written by the renowned former Depute Rector Dr A.J. Murray and an annual newsletter with an update on Club news and events.

Extent of participation in the Club is up to members themselves. There is also a very active London Club

A HISTORY OF WHICH TO BE PROUD

The Club remembers all Former Pupils (FP's). One of our older and most treasured FPs is Jim Ford, MC (leaving year 1938) who, along with his brother Douglas were taken prisoner in Hong Kong in 1941 when the Japanese overran the colony. Sadly Douglas was executed by the Japanese but Jim lives on and recently met with Lord Provost George Grubb (another notable FP) Jim is a noted author, and his career in the Civil Service included the post of Registrar General of Scotland.

A PROMISING FUTURE

The future of the Club is exciting. Each year, the Club grows as new former pupils join, but we need to ensure everyone can take advantage of the Club and the opportunities it provides. A strong Royal High School Club is ultimately good for the Royal High School, but its future depends on students participating as former pupils. Please help us to support the school and continuing the bond among all former pupils by joining the Club.
